My name is Bjørn Erik Haugen, and I have an MA from the National Academy in Oslo 2007. I work mainly with compositions, sound- and video-installation. I work from a conceptual platform where the idea to the work comes before the material, media or way of expression.

My works has been shown on the annual national autumn exhibition in Norway, and have been screened in Vienna, Barcelona, Sweden, Germany, England and in USA. I have exhibited at Transmediale 2012, Berlin. I received «Honorary Mention» at Prix Ars Electronica 2012 in the section Digital Musics & Sound Art. I exhibited at Palais de Tokyo, during Rencontres Internationales 2012 and at WRO International Media Art Biennale. In 2014 I exhibited at Bucharest Biennial and at Bristol Biennial. 2015 I exhibited at ISEA 2015. I started my phd this autumn. In 2017 I had a solo-exhibition at Haugar Art Museum and presented a video-work at the Second Research Pavilion for the 2017 Venice Biennale. This year I have had concerts at Only Connect Festival, Klang Festival, Copenhagen and Blurred Edges, Hamburg and have exhibition at Nachtspeicher23 Hamburg, K4 Gallery and Haugar Art Museum.
